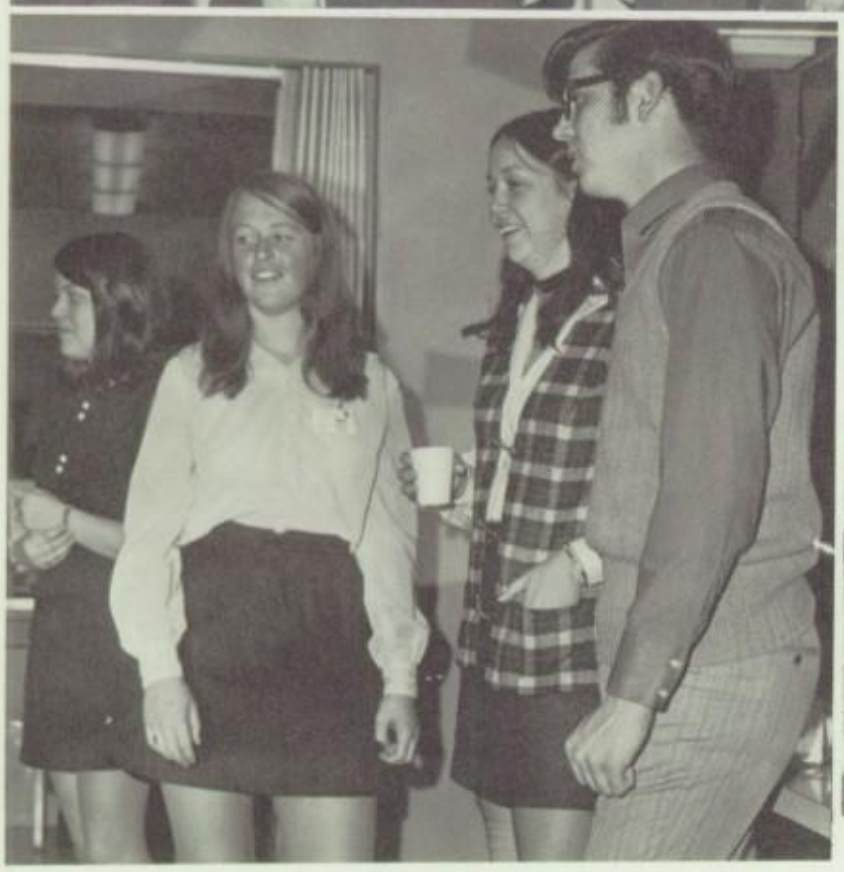
Exchange Students

Miriam Knight, last year's exchange student, has returned to Australia. Taking her place this year, we have with us Helio Tostes Felio from Brazil. Although Helio could speak no English when he arrived, he soon learned and became active in school events. Martha Beck was our exchange student this year; but due to unrest in Bolivia, she had to return before her year was completed.

Exchange Students

Karns City hosted area exchange students from fourteen different countries. The exchange students stayed with members of the Student Council during their stay at Karns City. After being introduced to the student body in an assembly, the students attended classes with their hosts. They attended various activities during the week end; including a dance held in their honor.



Senior Play
"The Ghost of a Chance"

"Why don't you go home, you pest."

"No, thanks, I've had my dessert."

"Hey, lady, see my new shoes?"

"Hi, I'm Joe Heever. Wanna buy a swooper?"

"It melts in your mouth, not in your hands."

"The Ghost of a Chance"

What happens when you finally move into your dream house but find out that it's haunted? This is the problem faced by Mr. and Mrs. Hale. The ghosts are two mischievous teenagers who had lived in the house before their deaths. After many unsuccessful attempts to get rid of the Hales, the ghosts decide that Mr. and Mrs. Hale should have the house and they leave it forever.

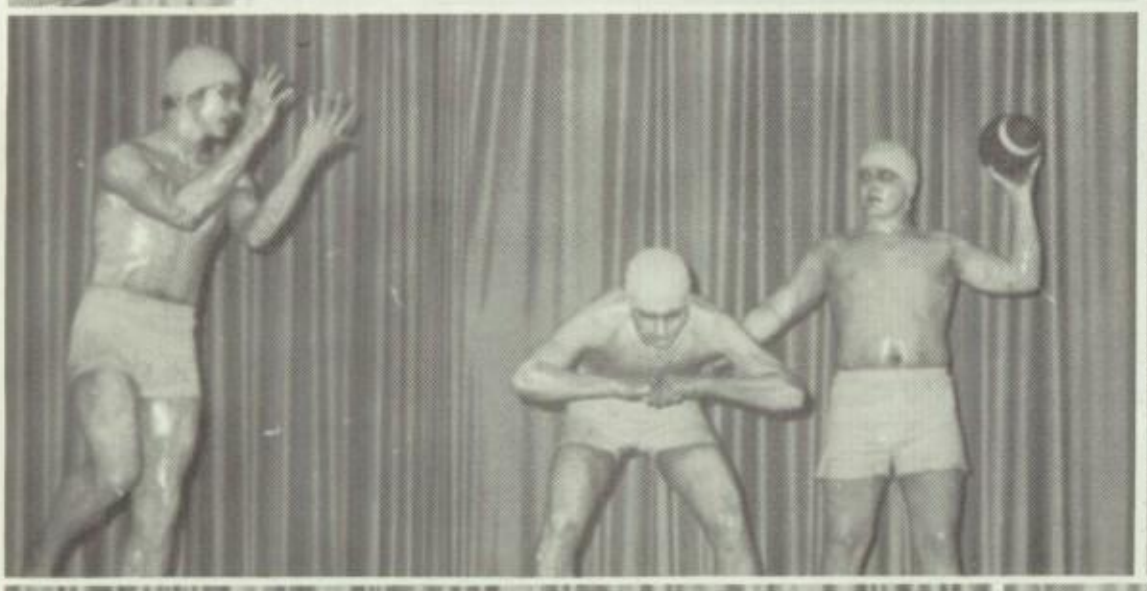
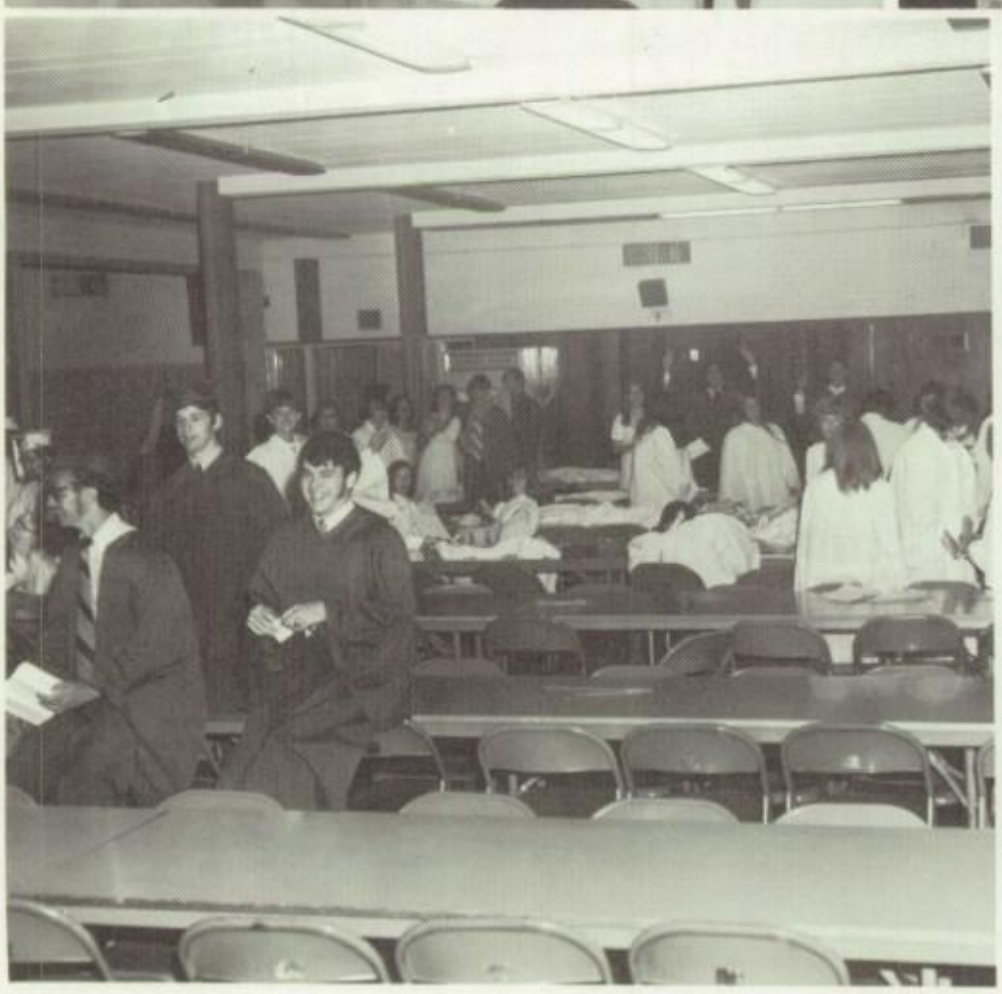
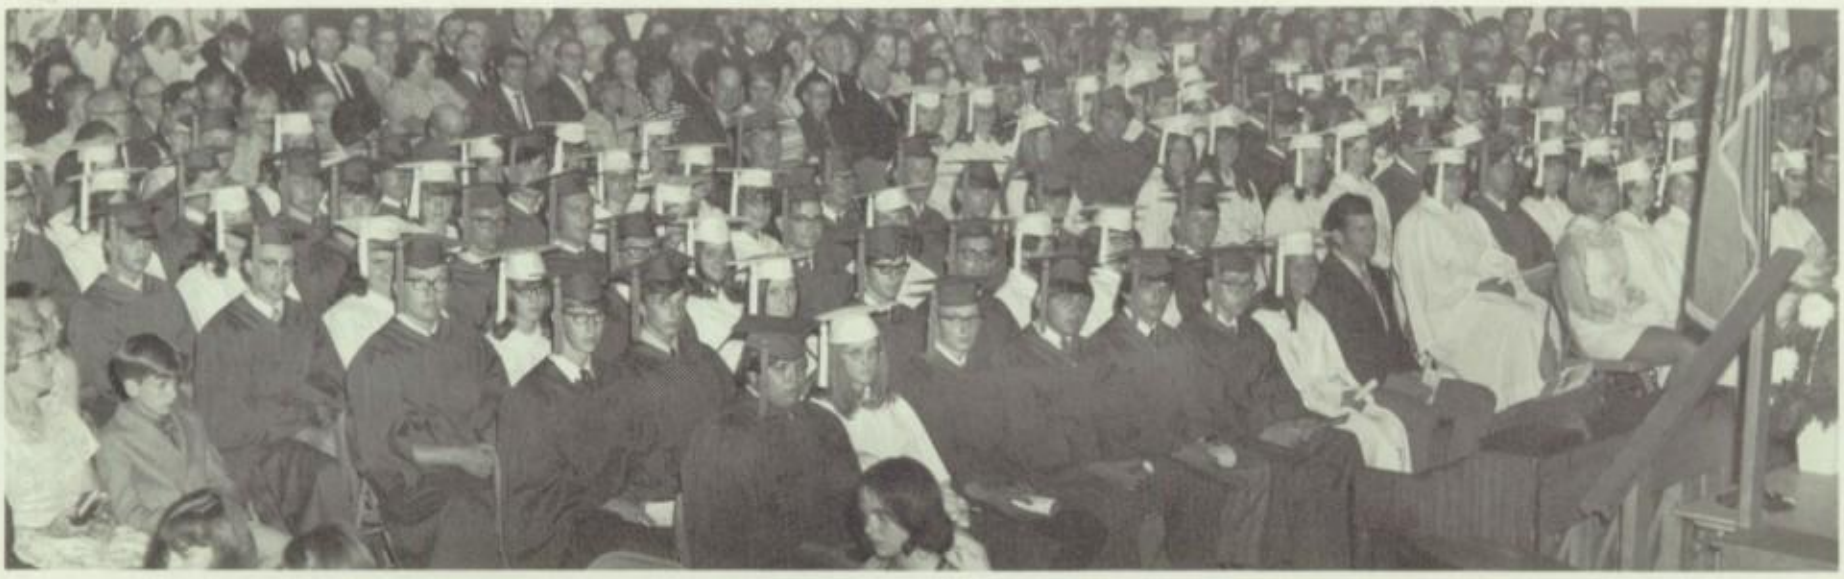
At the Prom

Senior Class Day



Commencement





Commencement was held on June 1, 1971. Led by the Junior Marshals, DeVonne Ellenberger and Bruce Lowers, the Senior class entered to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance". Dr. Thomas Ten-Hoeve, president of the Butler County Community College, was guest speaker. The student speakers were Patty Heeter, who spoke on "Education Around the World", and Sam Rob, who spoke on "Recent Changes in Education". Special guests were members of the Class of 1911; the first class to graduate from Karns City.

Platform Guests: Mrs. Minnie Ellenberger Hemphill, Mrs. Ruth McCollough Fleeger, Mr. John McCollough.

Student Speakers: Sam Rob, Patty Heeter.
